10:00am – 11:00am

If you're thinking of doing an energy project, the decision to make your building more energy efficient just got easier with Multifamily Energy Efficiency Rebates (MEER). With increased incentives recently announced, the HST looming, and a December 31st 2010 deadline for completing your project*, now is the time to upgrade your building and get cash back. This one hour seminar will provide an overview of MEER and how to take full advantage of the rebates.
