

2011
Environmental Excellence

This award recognizes a residential rental housing provider who has demonstrated excellence in environmental practices. This could include excellence in the areas of energy conservation, water conservation, recycling or other environmentally conscious practices. Entries will be judged based on the level of conservation or recycling achieved and the quality of environmental accomplishments when compared to an average rental housing provider in Ontario.

NOMINATION DEADLINE: Monday, October 3rd, 2011 12:00pm Noon

Please Note: All nominations must be in PowerPoint this year. All criteria listed on this form must be included in your presentation. Please follow the guideline below. For more information, see the following page for submission requirements.

Award:

This award is designed to have the flexibility to recognize different types of environmental practices. Some may focus on electricity or gas conservation. Others may focus on water conservation. Recycling of waste may be the focus of some submissions. There may be other environmentally conscious initiatives which it would be appropriate to recognize. Finally, it may be a combination of the above. The items highlighted should demonstrate a willingness to be an innovative leader in environmental practices and raising current standards to a new level.

Submission:

The submission should outline what activities were specifically undertaken by the rental housing provider to generate environmentally conscious outcomes. These submissions be based on capital investments or management practices, resident outreach initiatives or possibly some other initiatives of the housing provider. Where possible, submissions should provide firm data which measures outcomes before and after implementation. If the initiative relates to a new building or new investment, it should provide substantiation as to how this new building or investment excels when compared to standard new projects.
